Dear RV Enthusiast,

It is my dream to create travel trailers that allow families and individuals to get away from the everyday routines of life and to experience a whole new, relaxing lifestyle that brings all the comforts of home to the outdoors or wherever your imagination can take you. At Liteway, our goal is to enable as many people as possible to experience the RV life style. We do this by producing affordable, dependable and reliable products that can be pulled with current consumers' vehicles and by creating as much space as possible for ultimate comfort. Liteway units are designed for a lifetime of camping fun.

Sincerely,

Pamela Gruber
