As rugged and beautiful as the mountains for which they are named, Eagle Cap campers are the strongest and lightest campers in their class today. They’re made to last and built to look great — both inside and out.

Eagle Cap campers are strong.
Our campers feature what we believe is the best construction on the market today. For strength and weight, our all-welded aluminum framing can't be beat! We combine that tried-and-true frame with a vacuum bonding process. The result is a camper with a strength-to-weight ratio that is unparalleled.

Eagle Cap campers are durable.
We build our campers to last, with high-gloss, gel-coat fiberglass exteriors. One-piece molded front and rear fiberglass caps provide superb protection from the weather. Heavy-duty insulation makes our campers an excellent choice for use in all four seasons of the year.

Eagle Cap campers are attractive.
The durable, high-gloss fiberglass exterior looks great — our prices reflect it! With features like stainless steel appliances and built-in gun cabinets, a Western Interior, and high-quality hardwood cabinets, our Sport Packs are beautiful AND functional. They’re beautifully crafted to honor the habitat-conservation efforts of Ducks Unlimited and the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation, with which Eagle Cap Campers has formed partnerships. In honor of their efforts, we will donate a portion of the proceeds from the sale of these limited edition campers to both organizations. Eagle Cap Campers is proud to be the exclusive truck camper choice for both organizations.

Eagle Cap campers are a great value.
We focus on providing quality construction at an affordable price. We keep our overhead low so that we can manufacture campers with more standard features, better-quality parts, and high construction standards. We believe our campers are the best value on the market today!
