by Western Canada RV

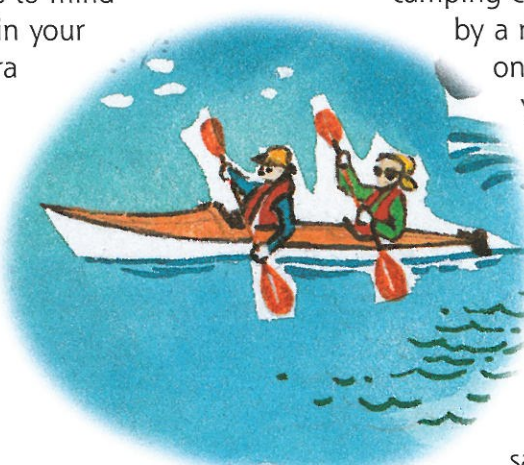

Adventurer...go for it!

Adventurer: A name that brings to mind memories of the best times in your life. Like taking the kids to Niagara Falls, marveling at the skill that sculpted Mount Rushmore, or catching the first glimpse of the Rocky Mountains. Wherever you have explored in the past and wherever you travel in the future, Adventurer truck campers are there to keep you secure, warm and dry – just as they have for over 33 years.

Today, we are as committed as ever to providing our customers with an exceptional camping experience. Whether you are camped by a river, high in the mountains or out on the range you have all the amenities you require and all the comforts of home.

Take a look through our brochure and imagine your next Adventurer expedition. Let the versatility of our campers bring out the adventurer in you. For 2002, we have introduced new features and more models, all built with the same rugged construction that has proven itself throughout the Northwest, Canada and Alaska.

Why should I choose an Adventurer Truck Camper for my next RV? At Western Canada RV we get asked this question a lot. Here's what we tell them:

VALUE! First of all, Adventurer truck campers provide a self-contained living space that costs less and delivers versatility unmatched in any other RV. Whether it's going to your next equestrian event or taking your boat or jet skis to the lake for the weekend, your truck camper makes you completely self-sufficient with no hotel, plane, train or restaurant bills to pay.

VERSATILITY: When you get to your destination, simply off-load your camper. Now you are ready to explore the great outdoors while the comfort and security of your Adventurer awaits your return.

COST vs. PRICE: It's not what you pay for an item, but what it costs you that's important. Your purchase of an Adventurer camper is a one time expenditure. With a truck camper there is no additional drive train, tires, or bearings to worry about. You will also find that on vacation, you will be using up to 25% less fuel than many other types of RVs. Once home, the truck you use for RVing can now serve for everyday transport.

A proven track record...

We have been manufacturing Adventurer products for over thirty years. Beginning with five employees in 1969, we have expanded our workforce to over 40 people. This impressive growth is the result of our absolute commitment to customer satisfaction.

We're with you all the way...

Excellence is built into every square inch of the Adventurer Series. Stringent quality controls ensure your investment meets your expectations at the time of purchase, and will last for years to come. We stand by our products with an industry leading 3-year Protection Plus Warranty.

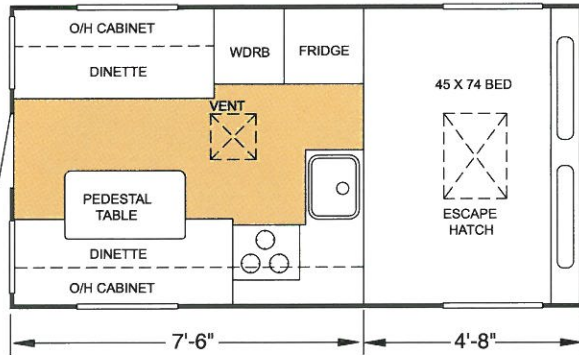

Adventurer products are famous for their value. The interiors are not only attractive but built to take the wear and tear of active outdoor living. Careful planning maximizes the living areas and ample storage space keeps everything free of clutter.

Fixtures, fittings, appliances, cabinets, fabrics and furnishings are all first quality. You can be sure that windows and entrances seal tight to keep out the harshest weather. Our dedication to your comfort and convenience will make you proud to be part of the Adventurer family for years to come.
